

So what's it all about?

Hipshake is the brand new festival from The Musician, the people who brought you the successful Leicester City Blues Festival. Although we've had a blast bringing you the Blues Festival these past few years there has always been a nagging feeling that we were leaving a lot out. What about all that other great music that we love and bring you night after night?

That's what Hipshake is all about. It harks back to a time before record companies felt the need to parcel up our listening enjoyment into neat little vacuum packed boxes. It goes back even further, taking it's lead from the great festivals of the '60s and '70s when the blues would rub shoulders with country, soul, rock and folk and nobody would think twice about it.

So welcome to Hipshake '09, born of a singular booking policy - no borders, no boundaries, just the best music we can possibly find, representing ALL the styles of music that we love. It's simply a genre shredding throwdown of some of the freshest rhythm and roots music around. Some of the acts you'll know, others you won't, but regardless of whether you like blues, folk, rock, old-timey, world, rockabilly, Americana, bands or singer-songwriters we guarantee there's something here that you'll enjoy. So come on down, join the rumpus and you never know you might even find yourself shaking your hips a little.
