Thu 2

Lulo Reinhardt's Latin Swing Project

£10 plus The Gadjos

Lulo Reinhardt is a spontaneous and spirited musician who is led by the guitar into musical voyages of discovery. His curiosity has taken him to southern Spain in search of flamenco roots, and to South America, exploring various musical styles of Latin Jazz. Lulo expresses his artistic personality in his gypsy influences, reflecting his character. www.myspace.com/luloreinhardt

Sun 5

Steve Conte & The Crazy Truth

(Michael Monroe, New York Dolls guitarist)

£10 plus Melodramas and Kafka Diva

"He sings, he shreds... great songs, great band!" - Andy York (John Mellencamp); "Good, old-fashioned '70s NYC barroom Rock 'n Roll." - Music Tap; "I love it!" - Cheetah Chrome (The Dead Boys); "Steve Conte is Rock-n-Roll, with taste!" - Rick Richards (Georgia Satellites/Izzy Stradlin); "Consummate talent and relentless passion...but it rocks like crazy!" - Billy Squier

Thu 16

Roger Wilson

£7 plus Matti Wilson

Roger Wilson is sounding better than ever, his performances drawing on the combination of his own songwriting, traditional folk songs and fiddle tunes and the work of several of his favorite writers, notably Hank Williams and Tom Waits. He performs in clubs, concerts, festivals and dance events, and enjoys a busy parallel career as a workshop leader and teacher.

The Tall Man At The Back:

A Tribute to Tom Westmoreland

£3 feat: Mother Hubbard, Sally Barker, Mellow Baku, Kevin Hewick and others.

The Tall Man is back for another all star showcase featuring the cream of Leicester's musicians. Over the last year we have raised more than £2000 for the CF Trust and the CF ward at Glenfield Hospital and we hope there will be much more to come! Tom is sadly missed by all who knew him and these fine musicians are here to pay tribute to Leicester's greatest bass player.

El Pussycat Ska & Kingsize

Tue 28 and Wed 29 £7

El Pussycat are no longer young boys blasting out 100 mph ska. "You're just too fast, too loud, too loud!!" said the godfather of ska Laurel Aitken. These days they keep their sound, which goes back to the 50's roots of bluebeat and ska, relaxed and rock steady. Leicester's other top ranking ska band Kingsize play foot-stompin', house rocking Kingsized arrangements of the finest original Jamaican ska sounds. Their style draws heavily on the classic Studio One song catalogue and traditional big band sounds of '60s ska. www.elpussycat.co.uk www.kingsize-ska.com

OBS Unplugged

Throughout January (see over for dates)

£2 with flyer £3door

An extension to the already popular Original Band Showcase, OBS Unplugged is specifically for acoustic acts, singer-songwriters and duo's of any genre. The chosen artists will participate in a series of high profile showcases throughout January. With over fifty acts taking part these shows promise to be great nights showcasing the some of the best established and emerging talent that the East Midlands has to offer.

Tue 4

Kevin Montgomery & The Roadtrippers

£14 plus support

Kevin Montgomery grew up on Nashville's Music Row as a child of parents whose careers crossed over from country music to the early, seminal days of American rock 'n' roll. While the contemporary yet timeless feel of Kevin's own music is strongly influenced by the 'California Country-Rock' of artists like Gram Parsons, The Eagles, and Roger McGuinn, his deeply resonant songwriting recalls the Americana-flavored storytelling of Bruce Springsteen and Jackson Browne. www.kevinmontgomery.com

John Kirkpatrick

£8 plus Jonny Kearney & Lucy Farrell

From the late 1960s John Kirkpatrick has been at the very forefront of innovative folk in Britain and has played with the Albion Band, Steeleye Span, the Richard Thompson Band, Brass Monkey and Band of Hope, as well as establishing himself as a brilliant solo act. Winner of Musician of the Year at the 2010 BBC Radio 2 2010 Folk Awards, he is quite simply, as fRoots said "in a class of his own."

Forever Living Dead

£5 plus support

Forever Living Dead are a Leicester based 4-piece alternative rock band with big choruses, catchy harmonies and raw edged riffs. Combining the sounds and image of today's music scene with their own unique brand of heavy rock, few would bet against these guys realising their ambition to make it on to the big stage.

Fri 28

Funk Soul Brother

£5

As the name suggests the Funk Soul Brother band is a tight knit unit of friends featuring brother and sister lead vocal team Adam and Anna Ross. They are dedicated to giving the best possible performance and keeping all the audience on the dance floor. Many of the band members have worked together in a number of different groups giving an unrivalled depth to the musical understanding within the band.
