£10adv plus support

Daevid Allen was one of the founders of Soft Machine. After recording just one album with the group, he became the founder/leader of Gong, which he left in 1973 to begin a solo career. ## Simon 'Honeyboy' Hickling

£5door

A world-class musician, Simon 'Honeyboy' Hickling is a blues harmonica ace with a hard earned and well-deserved international reputation. His subtle and fabulously expressive playing is grounded firmly in the '50s and '60s heyday of the Chicago and Gulf Coast styles of playing. With a tremendously experienced band backing him, Simon never fails to deliver anything less than a first-rate evenings entertainment and never lets good taste and soulfulness stifle a rockin' night out. He has thrilled and moved audiences the world over for over 35 years with his matchless skill with which he plays his chosen instruments, most especially the Irish tenor banjo. ## Stray

£7adv £9door plus Jasper Jacks

Del Bromham's Stray are a power trio that mix scintillating lead guitar with melodic anthems such as "All in Your Mind" which has been covered by Iron Maiden. Back in the '70s Stray were one of the hardest gigging and consistently excellent live acts on the circuit. With fiery guitarist Del Bromham still at the top of his game, the new Stray line-up is setting new standards for one of Britain's most enduring rock bands. ## Sky Larkin

£7 plus support

This Leeds trio have spent the past two years honing their craft, and everyone has upped their game, thanks to a touring schedule that the sturdiest of bands would balk at. Doug Adams is playing more instruments, Nestor Matthews continues to break cymbals and invent new grimaces, and Katie is playing harder than ever. Too hard, on occasion: during the recording of Spooktacular, she almost passed out. www.myspace.com/skylarkinskylarkin

Their classic Northern Sound defines punk and electro in one. Having worked with Ian Curtis, Martin Hammett and Bernard Sumner on four Factory albums they now continue to record for LTM.
