The Hillmans (feat. Dick Taylor)

£7adv £8door plus The Outwoods County Riders

Playing a mix of jazz blues, Chicago blues, delta blues, rock & roll and carefully selected popular songs, The Hillmans are now firmly established as a leading band on the Isle Of Wight. This is hardly surprising as they feature the legendary Dick Taylor, guitarist with the Pretty Things and an original member of the Rolling Stones. ## Trace Bundy

£8adv Jonny Martin and Richard Warren

Trace Bundy must be seen, not just heard. His music is poetry in motion, using harmonics, looping, multiple capos and his unique banter and stage presence to deliver an unforgettable live concert experience. Listening to his intricate arrangements is one thing, but seeing the "Acoustic Ninja" play live confounds even the most accomplished music lovers as to how one person can do all that with just two hands and ten fingers. ## Stacie Collins

£8adv £10door plus The Midnight Dogs

Muskogee-born and Bakersfield-raised is a pedigree that most country singers would kill for; not only does Stacie Collins live up to her heritage, she exceeds it with a unique sound that blends roadhouse rock-n-roll, Chicago blues and hard country-twang. "An infectious blend of roadhouse country rock fronted by a blues-harp-blowing woman who sings with a desperate passion and a slight Tammy Wynette catch in her voice." - NO DEPRESSION. ## Vintage Trouble

£7adv support is Hewick, Haynes & James

These soulful Hollywood based rockers are THE must-see band 2011. Their performance on Later With Jools Holland at the end of April was so incendiary that the band became the sixth most popular trend on Twitter world-wide the day after the show aired! There aren't enough superlatives in the dictionary to do them justice but the likes of "explosive", "breathtaking" and "jaw-dropping" will have to suffice. ## The Misers

£5 plus The Establishment

Influenced by the rawness of early CCR records and the intimate storytelling of Ian Hunter, The Misers are on the up. Frontman Neil Ivison is blessed with a soulful, passionate voice that evokes 'Free'-era Paul Rodgers, Bruce Springsteen in his 'Born to Run' prime and his modern contemporary Kelly Jones. The band's current champion, Radio 2's Janice Long, heaped praise on the Misers, endorsing their current album as "a return to the 70's golden era of song writing!" ## Caitlin Rose

£8adv plus Chris Warner

Nashville's Caitlin Rose tells stories of an evolving country. The stories are old themes voiced with a new ease and energetic pace. They're fearlessly grainy in the same way that the black and white photographs of the 1970s differ from those in the 1950s, in the way that writing about evolution is no longer about getting richer, sleeker, or more efficient. Hers are evolutionary stories in surprising but truthful directions, where sometimes dead flowers mean so much more than live ones. myspace.com/caitlinrosesong

Jason Ringenberg

£8adv plus support

"He still has that unbelievable energy level...high kicking around the stage like the 20 something country punk he once was, well still is really." - Americana UK. "One of the most overlooked country rock pioneers still in the business... Ringenberg has gained a reputation as one of the most dynamic live performers of his generation." - The Times. ## Ian McLagan

£14adv plus support

There is no other keyboardist in the history of rock & roll with a more stunning, voluminous résumé than Ian 'Mac' McLagan. He was one of the animating forces behind the Faces and Small Faces and has toured and recorded with The Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan, Bonnie Raitt, Bruce Springsteen and Billy Bragg just to name a few. ## Clare Free & Cherry Lee Mewis

£6adv

Clare Free's roots lie in the blues but her influences go way beyond the genre making her one of the most exciting new artists writing and performing in the blues world today. Clare's performances are fiery, exciting and heartfelt. Cherry Lee Mewis is a five foot nothing, twenty four year old female singer song writer from North Wales with a power-house vocal delivery who has helped turn roots 'n' blues music into a cool, swinging fusion that's both classic and yet contemporary. ## Steve Tilston and The Durbervilles

£8adv £10door

In this latest venture Steve Tilston teams up with established Yorkshire based alt country/folk quintet The Durbervilles. Many folk acts and bands including Fairport Convention have had success with Steve Tilston covers - now here is a chance to hear the writer himself in a band setting. The Durbervilles song writing and four part harmony singing are also strengths which enhance their growing reputation and attracted Steve Tilston to the idea of this new partnership. ## Lysergic Suite

£5 plus Pennyhangers, Daylight Frequencies

2010 was a great year for The Lysergic Suite. Their debut E.P "Ghosts On Crusade" which features the legendary Tom Meighan from Kasabian is out and the band are now in the studio recording their debut album. The E.P is a mix of dirge guitars and chemical synths... but then it would be, as it was mixed by Tim Holmes from "Death In Vegas." "Expect the album August 2011."

The Redlands Palomino Company

plus support £8adv

In the days before the rise of the UK Americana scene, The Redlands Palomino Company alongside The Arlenes and Grand Drive, were doing their best to bring Cosmic American Music to a country recovering from retro rock bands. And then, just as they had paved the way for those walking in their footsteps, The Redlands went away. "Life got in the way". "People had babies and dogs to walk" are some of the excuses you'll hear today, but in truth, they just spent way too much time recording their new and definitely best album 'Don't Fade'.
