LIVE IN LEICESTER PRESENTS...

FRI 4

THE CRAZY WORLD OF ARTHUR BROWN

£16adv - plus support

The source of Arthur Brown's music lies beyond both the spiritual and the material. His first album The Crazy World of Arthur Brown was his theatrical statement of this. It, and the single Fire! - which came from it - were both a hit on the two sides of the Atlantic. He is a performance artist who also became a rock icon and his influence was felt through his theatrical musical style, his theatrical presentation, his dancing, and his vocal ability. His voice has been described as "one of the most beautiful voices in rock music" and his presentation is second to none! Recently he won Classic Rock's Showman of the Year Award. www.arthur-brown.com

TUE 15

ROACHFORD

£12adv £14door

Ever since bulldozing his way onto the scene with unforgettable tracks like 'Cuddly Toy' and 'Family Man' in the late 80s, Andrew Roachford's maverick take on music has spread far and wide. As the first artist to sign a staggering seven-album deal with Columbia Records, it heralded the beginning of something big. "Getting signed and being a black British artist gave me a sense of pride" enthuses Andrew. Andrew was Columbia's biggest selling domestic act for over ten years. As if any more proof were needed, the fact that Roachford has been approached by such luminaries as Michael Jackson and Chaka Khan to write songs, speaks volumes. www.roachford.co.uk

THU 17

IAN SIEGAL

£10adv - solo show

Ian Siegal's live performances are captivating, whether fronting his band or sitting on a stool with an old resonator guitar. "The man is a star. Period" is how one reviewer described Siegal, after an appearance at London's Jazz Café. Ian Siegal has played major festivals in Europe including the North Sea Jazz Festival where he shared the main stage with Robert Cray, Jamie Cullum and Joss Stone. iansiegal.com

SLIM CHANCE

£10adv £12door

Slim Chance, the band Ronnie Lane formed when he left the Faces, are treading the boards again. Original members Steve Simpson, Charlie Hart, Steve Bingham, Alun Davies and Colin Davey have established a reputation around the country as a top quality band playing Ronnie's songs with passion and commitment. The aim is to create a show which celebrates the range of Ronnie's later music and eventually, joined by numerous friends, to resurrect the Passing Show itself. www.slim-chance.co.uk

THE HOME GROWN MUSIC COLLECTIVE PRESENTS...

SAT 26

BOXSTOCK 5

The Annual UK Cigar Box Festival

£10/Daytime free - feat. Justin Johnson, Kingsize Slim & Vinylhed
Boxstock 5 sees the UK's annual cigar box festival going back to its roots, with a relaxed one day event with a workshop or two, some demos and trade stands, plus a kick ass gig to finish it off. The evening show welcomes back the most entertaining of entertainers, Vinylhed, the twangtastic King Size Slim, and for the first time on UK soil from the USA, the inspiring Justin Johnson. The daytime event also includes open mic sessions and is free entry. www.homegrownmusiccollective.com

SUN 27

THE DEL-LORDS

£12adv £14door - plus support

Formed in the early '80s by ex-Dictators guitarist Scott Kempner, the Del Lords combined elements of '60s garage rock with country, blues, and folk influences to become one of the initial progenitors of roots rock. Their latest offering Elvis Club finds the New York-bred foursome pretty much picking up where they left off, embodying the same musical swagger, true-believer passion and infectiously gritty urban garage-roots-rock that originally made them one of America's most compelling rock 'n' roll bands. del-lords.com

MAGIC TEAPOT PRESENTS...

TUE 3

JOHN MURRY

£10adv - plus Liam Dullaghan

Hailing from Tupelo, Mississippi; John Murry's solo debut album 'The Graceless Age' is imbued with the ghosts of the Southern states and the personal demons that have haunted him throughout his life. He has described himself as more absorbed in the world of literature than in the day-to-day concerns of the modern world, and for good reason: he's second cousin to William Faulkner and has spent much time with his second cousin's work. Throughout his songs in the key of heartbreak, there is nonetheless a strong and abiding sense of salvation and reconciliation. www.johnmurry.com

THU 12

KATHRYN WILLIAMS

£12adv £14door - plus Alex Cornish

Kathryn Williams' artful and soulful compositions and sweet sound have got the critics falling over each other to heap praise on her. She is more than just a folk singer/songwriter, producing music that possesses great depth and multiple dimensions, and which addresses both the everyday and the surreal and abstract. Kathryn's new album 'Crown Electric' will be released by Caw Records/One Little Indian in the last quarter of 2013. It will be her 10th studio album. www.kathrynwilliams.net

JIM WHITE

£13adv £15door - plus Paul Fonfara and Dan Britton

Jim White's critically acclaimed debut album, The Mysterious Tale of How I Shouted Wrong-Eyed Jesus, tapped into the zeitgeist of what would soon blossom into the lo-fi Americana movement. "Back then there was maybe twenty of us doing it. Now, hell, there's a million lonesome geniuses out there, each one singing their heart out sadder than the next." White is known primarily for both his genre bending records like his 2001 break out album 'No Such Place' and 2007's 'Transnormal Skiperoo', as well as his award winning BBC documentary film 'Searching For The Wrong-Eyed Jesus'. www.jimwhite.net

SAT 14

WIRE

£14.50adv - plus Xaviers (feat. members of Bo Ningen)

From 1977's Pink Flag to the band's most recent album, 'Change Becomes Us', legendary art-combo Wire have created a unique body of work. Subverting genres, Colin Newman, Graham Lewis, Robert Grey and Matthew Simms continue to work on new material, regularly confounding expectations. Wire employ their unique, endlessly restless and risk-taking creativity to question every aspect of songwriting, recording and performance. They delight and disturb in equal measure, troubleshooting the circuitry of perfect pop, or patrolling the limits of focused experimentalism. www.pinkflag.com

BOTOWN

£10adv - Doors 7:30pm

Chart topping Botown are a multicultural Soul band that reboot Bollywood classics with a shot of late '60 Soul and Funk. It's an exciting culture-clash musical experience that takes you on a musical trip from Memphis to Mumbai. Imagine a legendary '60's Soul band playing Bollywood music - that's Botown! "If you like Bollywood or '60's Soul, you will LOVE Botown!" - The Times. www.botown.co.uk

SUN 29

TERRY REID

£12adv £14door - plus Kevin Hewick

Terry Reid, or Superlungs as he's affectionately known, is without doubt one of the greatest rock/soul voices this country has ever produced or is indeed likely to. Aretha Franklin once described Reid, who turned down the job of Led Zeppelin and Deep Purple frontman, as the best England had to offer alongside the Beatles and the Stones. www.terryreid.com
