Tue 5 AWKWARD FAMILY PORTRAITS

£10adv £12door

Awkward Family Portraits have been dishing out rockin' roots music to the streets of Glasgow since 2016. With a roguish charm and signature style that elevates them far above the dusty stereotypes of the genre, AFP are a band that have one central goal and that is to get you to abandon all the outside world's hang-ups and move. The brainchild of four likeminded musicians with a wealth of originality and technical skill at their disposal, you only need to catch the briefest glimpse of one of their live shows to feel an insatiable urge to make your way into the crowd and let loose! Wed 6 EMILY MAE WINTERS

£10adv £12door

Emily Mae Winters has that rare quality in a singer that makes critics reach for the superlatives. Described as having a voice that "stops you in your tracks" and "arresting, enthralling, tantalising" by Americana UK, Emily combines straight-to-the-heart bittersweetness with her own unique passion and drama in performance. Winters released her much awaited second album 'High Romance' in July 2019 which sits between the stormy seas of folk and country. emilymaewinters.com

Tue 26 LIZ LAWRENCE

plus Blackaby • £12adv £15door • Doors 7pm

With a career that has seen her previously support Ani DiFranco on tour and collaborate with indie stalwarts Bombay Bicycle Club, Stratford-upon-Avon-born singer-songwriter Liz Lawrence has retained a budding presence for the best part of ten years, both on her own merit and as one half of electro-pop duo Cash + David. A songwriter of depth, honesty and humility who hasn't forgotten we all need a little pop music in our lives. lizlawrencemusic.co.uk

Fri 4 BAND OF FRIENDS

£15adv £17door

Not just the notes but the sound, energy and feel of Rory Gallagher, delivered by people who helped define it. Bassist Gerry McAvoy (Nine Below Zero) appeared on every Gallagher album and subsequently wrote his biography 'Riding Shotgun' in 2005. The current line-up is completed by Rory's former drummer Brendan O'Neill (1981-1991), guitarist Paul Rose, chosen by Rory in a Fender sponsored competition, and Jim Kirkpatrick who grew up as an avid fan. bandoffriends.eu

Tue 8 FRANCK CARDUCCI & THE FANTASTIC SQUAD

£8.50adv £10door / NUS £5adv £7oor • Doors 7:30pm

The award-winning Franck Carducci's debut album 'Oddity' began an epic journey but he makes his biggest statement on stage, incorporating costumes, make-up, psychedelic atmospheres, humour and sensuality into his shows. Yes, you think of Genesis, of Alice Cooper and David Bowie, of Led Zeppelin and Pink-Floyd too. But eventually, you will no longer think of anybody else. Carducci, as Master of Ceremonies, and his rock 'n' roll circus will not give your senses a second's rest. frackcarducci.com

Wed 9 WILLE & THE BANDITS

plus Mike Ross • £15adv £18door

Essentially Wille and the Bandits are a classic blues rock three-piece much in the vein of Cream or The Jimi Hendrix Experience and similarly, try to take their sound beyond what is expected of such a traditional line-up. Having toured with artists such as Deep Purple through to the John Butler Trio and played major festivals across Europe, the band seem to leave an equally astounding impression on audiences of all ages and musical backgrounds with their energetic and soulful performances. willeandthebandits.com
